Easter Flowers: Flowers from Easter are available in the passageway to the Parish Office for anyone that would like to take one, or more, home with them today.

Diapers for Doorways: In honor of Mothers Day and through 16 June, we are collecting diapers for Doorways (women and children fleeing domestic violence.) Any sizes are needed but they currently have some expectant moms, so newborn and size 1 would be a plus. Diapers can be left at the back of the church or outside the Parish Office. Thank you!

Easter Neighborhood Experiments: For the last year, seven parishioners have been meeting regularly to thoughtfully observe how our congregation engages the larger community. We've wondered together about all God is up to, and how we might partner with God in meaningful ways beyond the walls of our sanctuary. While we certainly don't have all the answers, we would like to invite everyone at St. Michael's into this process of listening, praying, and hopeful discernment. Join members of the Experimental Taskforce as we seek to engage our neighborhood throughout the Easter season. Taskforce members will guide participants through Bible Study and different elements of discernment, seeking to see our neighborhood with fresh eyes. Please contact the experimental leaders below with questions or for more information. More dates and times to be published soon!

Experiments with Cindy Warkentin and Maureen Doallas:

Monday, 13 May – meet at Trade Roots in Westover at 11:00 AM

Experiments for families with children, with Pauline Kusiak
and Beth Franklin:

Saturday, 18 May – meet at Westover Park at 10:30 AM

Experiments with Lisa Harkins and Gerry Oosterholt: Walk for 20 minutes.

Thursday, 30 May – meet at Westover Library at 7:00 PM
Sunday, 2 June – meet at Westover Library at 4:00 PM

Bible Challenge (and Beyond) is starting their next book and invites anyone interested to join us. We will be reading "Bad Girls of the Bible" by Liz Curtis Higgs. We meet from 1:30-3:30 on Thursdays in the library.

Book Group: The book group will meet at 12:30 PM on Friday, 24 May in the church library. Please note that this is a change from our regularly scheduled meeting date. We will discuss Just Mercy: A Story of Justice and Redemption by Bryan Stevenson. So bring a bagged lunch and please join us for our discussion of this inspiring and powerful book.

A-SPAN Shelter: We need three volunteers for Friday, 7 June, to serve meals to 40 – 50 people at the Shelter between 5:30 and 7:30 PM. Questions? Contact Linda Kelleher (lindakelleher@gmail.com).

Sacred Threads Exhibition - The biennial "Sacred Threads" exhibition of quilts and fiber works by artists throughout the U.S. is scheduled this summer from 18 July to 22 July. It will be held at Floris United Methodist Church in Herndon, Va. The show's theme is "Eye Contact: creating a connection". Work on that theme is placed in categories described as "life journeys": Joy, Grief, Inspiration, Spirituality, Healing, Peace. No particular religion or theology is emphasized; rather, all the work conveys spirituality, healing, and inspirational messages. The cost is $10 general admission; $8 for groups of 8 or more. I am coordinating with Brenda Cox of Lomax A.M.E. Zion Church to arrange an outing to the exhibition on Thursday, 18 July. The plan will be to leave from St. Michael's at 10:30 a.m., travel to and see the show, have lunch together at a nearby restaurant, and return to St. Michael's before 5:00 p.m. If you want to see the exhibition as part of a St. Michael's-Lomax group, please let me know by Friday, 31 May. Brenda will be arranging for transportation for the group. For additional exhibit information, go to: www.sacredthreadsquilts.com. ~ Maureen Doallas

You May Be Hearing From Us: As a part of our efforts to ensure we're listening and communicating well, the Vestry will be making phone calls to each household within the parish. We hope to learn about what is going well for you, what questions you have, and how we may hold you in prayer.

Coffee Hour: Please note in the current Guardian important information concerning our coffee hours. We request parishioners sign-up, as they are able, for at least 3-4 slots through to Advent. The Guardian article, as well as the St. Michael's Fellowship webpage, has links for further information and for signing up electronically. A printed copy of the most recent Guardian along with the Coffee Hour Guidelines is posted on the Bulletin Board in the passageway between the Parish Hall and Classrooms. A printed copy of the sign-up sheet is available during coffee hour. Please contact Dan Plafcan or Michele Casciano with any questions. Coffee Hour Sign Up is at <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/9040b48aeab22a02-stmichaels2>

Laptops or Tablets for Refugees: Do you have an unused laptop or tablet? Lutheran Social Services of the National Capital Area aims to provide to every refugee family a laptop or tablet to help facilitate job-hunting and educational success. To donate, contact: Aya at turkia@lssnca.org - Maureen Doallas

Saint Michael's Shrine Mont Weekend - September 13-15, 2019: Our Shrine Mont weekend is a great time for all ages! Come join fellow parishioners for an opportunity to unplug, unwind, and commune with our Creator in a serene and inspiring outdoor setting. This year, we will endeavor to seek God through the arts. How do the arts—music, drawing, painting, theater—unlock our creative spirit and faith? Registration is open now! This year, please endeavor to return your information by June 15th, so we may give Shrine Mont an accurate count for the weekend. Additional information is available in the Guardian and by asking any member of the Shrine Mont steering committee: Caroline Haynes, Linda Kelleher, T.J. Burnside Clapp, or Tom Sheldon.

Altar Flowers

The flowers on the altar are given by Mick Sutter to the glory of God and in memory of Kim Sutter.
